ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES

I. A Congregational Church is a company of professed followers of Christ, organized for the maintenance of Christian worship, the observance of the Christian sacraments, for mutual edification and helpfulness, and the extension of the Kingdom of Christ in the world.

II. Such a body under Christ, who is its only head, is competent to choose its officers, admit members, administer its discipline, and do all other acts necessary to attain its purposes.

III. A church, though thus independent of external authority, is bound in relations of mutual care and communion with other churches, and this church will, in all ordinary cases, conform to the usages of fellowship established among Congregational churches.

IV. All members of this church possess an equal authority—except in cases hereafter provided—in the administration of its affairs. All are held equally responsible for its prosperity and success; and all are expected to contribute conscientiously and regularly, according to their ability, toward its current expenses, in such method as shall from time to time be determined.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Central Congregational Church, called at first the First Congregational Church, was organized on the third day of August, 1837, and was composed chiefly of members of the Presbyterian Churches in Derry and Londonderry.

The first steps were taken in an orderly way and in accordance with accepted ecclesiastical usage, as appears from the first words of our church records, which are as follows:

"July 8, 1837. Several gentlemen from the Presbyterian churches of Derry and Londonderry having met for the purpose of taking measures for the organization of a new church in Derry, they proceeded as follows:

Chose DEA. NATHANIEL PARKER, Chairman,

" THOMAS CARLTON, JR., Secretary

" ABEL F. HILDRETH,

" NATH'L AIKEN,

" BENJAMIN MCMURPHY,

A committee to convene a Council for the purpose of organizing the church.

"Voted, that the Council meet on the third day of Aug. next. That Council meet at Mr. Hildreth's, with representatives from the churches in Derry, Londonderry, Hampstead, Bedford and Windham, and the Rev. Dr. J. H. Church.

"Forty members of the Derry church, twenty-three members of the Londonderry church, and one from the church in Pelham, brought letters dismissing them from their own churches and commending them to the new church, and the Council voted that it was expedient that such a church be formed. There was no evidence of any bitterness of feeling or any spirit of schism actuating these members in withdrawing from the mother churches. They desired better religious facilities, a house of worship nearer their homes, and in view of the growing population of this village they deemed it wise to organize a new church. Just why they were led to prefer the Congregational form of church government to the Presbyterian, to which they had been accustomed, does not appear from the records. Probably they judged this form of polity would be better adapted to them, as promising greater results for the cause of evangelical religion in this place.

"A Confession of faith and a Covenant were then adopted by those proposing to constitute the church, and then they proceeded to the meeting house for the public exercises of organization. The sermon was by Dr. Church, Fellowship of the Churches was by Rev. Mr. Parker, and Consecrating Prayer by Rev. Mr. Cutler. On the same day, Aug. 3, the church chose its Clerk, and Aug. 12 Deacons were elected and a call was extended to Mr. Pliny B. Day to become pastor of the church. Mr. Day accepted the call and was ordained and installed on the fourth of October. Mr. Day was dismissed at his own request June 9, 1851.

"Rev. Ebenezer G. Parsons, the second minister, was installed Oct. 1, 1851. Mr. Parsons was dismissed Oct. 7, 1869.

"Rev. Robert W. Haskins, the third minister, was ordained and installed Nov. 19, 1872. Mr. Haskins was dismissed Jan. 1, 1879.

"Rev. D. Warren Richardson, the fourth minister, was installed Feb. 26, 1880. Mr. Richardson was dismissed Sept. 25, 1885.

"Rev. Hiram B. Putnam became acting pastor Oct. 18, 1885."

RULES

1. This church shall be called the Central Congregational Church of Derry.
2. The officers of the church shall be a Pastor, three Deacons, a Clerk, Treasurer, and Church Committee, all of whom except the Pastor and Deacons, shall be elected annually.
3. The term of service for the Deacons shall be three years, one Deacon to be chosen each year.
4. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a record of all business meetings, to record all changes in the membership of the church, and all baptisms administered, and to embody an account of these and other facts that may be of interest pertaining to the history of the church, in a report to be presented by him at each annual meeting.
5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and disburse all moneys belonging to and contributed by the church, according to its direction, and to make a full report of the same at each annual meeting.
6. The Church Committee shall consist of the Pastor and Deacons and two other members to be chosen annually. They shall examine candidates for admission to the church and exercise a special supervision over the interests of the church. All members eighteen years of age or over are entitled to vote at any business meeting.

7. The annual business meeting, for the election of officers, hearing reports, etc., shall be held during the third week in January. All members eighteen years of age or over are entitled to vote at any business meeting.
8. Persons wishing to unite with us by confession of faith, when they have been approved by the Committee and propounded at least one week, may be elected by vote of the church, and become members upon publicly assenting to the articles of faith and covenant.
9. Letters of recommendation from other churches shall be first submitted to the Committee, and on their approval the persons bringing them may be received as members by vote of the church.
10. Members of the church removing from town, are expected promptly to take letters of dismission to other churches. If they have failed to do so at the end of a year, they should report themselves to the Pastor or Clerk.
11. The duty of reproving an erring member of the church and seeking his restoration devolves first upon the member who is cognizant of the offense, and, second, when this course shall fail of its desired effect, upon the committee, who at their discretion may present charges and evidence to the church. All action in such cases is to be taken in accordance with the rules of Christian watchfulness and discipline laid down in the Scriptures.
12. No member of the church should be absent habitually without sufficient providential reasons, from its communion and worship. No member should fail to contribute as he may be able to the support of its public ministrations. Any such continued absence, or failure to give, must be regarded as a violation of the intent of the covenant in which we are united as a church.

13. This church regards it as an important part of Christian duty to assist in sending the Gospel throughout the world and to this end regular offerings shall be made, in accordance with such system as may be judged appropriate.
 14. These rules of the church may be altered and amended at any regular meeting, due notice having been given that such change is proposed.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

“What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all the people.

“Whosoever shall confess me before men him will I also confess before my Father which is in Heaven.”

Dearly beloved, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ:—We give hearty thanks for you to God, who has opened your hearts to receive Jesus as Lord and inclined you to enter into the communion and fellowship of His Church. Uniting with us, and with the Church throughout the world, you now confess your faith:

CONFESSION OF FAITH

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Savior, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God, and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood. Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

[TO THOSE BAPTIZED IN CHILDHOOD]

You who in childhood were brought into the church on the faith of your parents, to be recognized as the children of God, and dedicated to His service; do you accept and confirm for yourselves that consecration made for you in childhood when you were baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost?

[BAPTISM OF ADULTS AND YOUNG PEOPLE]

Dearly beloved who are come hither desiring to be baptized, you are now faithfully, for your part, in the presence of God and His congregation, to promise and answer the following questions:

Do you receive and profess the Christian faith, and in this faith do you desire to be baptized?

Do you confess your sins and turn from them in godly sorrow, and put all your trust in the mercy of God which is in Christ Jesus; and do you promise in His strength to lead a sober, righteous, and godly life?

[TO THOSE RECEIVED BY LETTER]

Kindred in Christ who come acknowledging the vows made when first you declared your faith in Christ, we bid you welcome. We greet you as fellow laborers in His service, and fellow travelers to His promised rest. Do you now cordially unite yourselves with this church and accept its covenant of mutual service? Do you promise to pray and work for its upbuilding and its usefulness; to help in sustaining its worship, its activities, and its charities; and to live with us in Christian fellowship? Do you so promise?

[TO ALL TO BE RECEIVED INTO MEMBERSHIP]

Having now confessed your faith with us, do you now unite with this Church, engaging to submit to its government and discipline, to co-operate with it in all good enterprises, and to promote to the utmost of your power, its purity, its peace, and its prosperity?

[THE CHURCH WILL RISE]

We then, the members of this church, welcome you with joy into our communion and fellowship. We pledge to you our sympathy, our help, our prayers, that you may evermore increase in the knowledge and love of God. God grant that loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared while we dwell together on earth for the perfect fellowship of the saints above.
